

Patty Lorandos, Treasurer

Patty Lorandos, a.k.a. “Yaya” and “Dani” to her Greek and Gujarati grandchildren, has been skijoring and dog sledding since 1992 with her Siberian Huskies.. Her canine teammate's names are Raja, Tutti, Ghost, Johnny, Speedo, Hattie, Lurch and Gladys. Patty has attended the "Mushing Boot Camp" training seminar offered by Jamie Nelson and Ann Stead for several years. Consequently, Patty’s dogs thank Jamie Nelson and Ann Stead for training their driver to have some dog sense. Her team runs most often at the Last Chance Retreat and Trails in Baldwin, MI with other Michigan Dog Drivers (MiDD) members. It has also run the White Oak Classic Sled Dog Race- trophy class, the Tahquamenon County Sled Dog Race-20 mile, the Sweetwater Challenges #1 and #2, the Jack Pine 30, the Wolf Track Classic Sled Dog Race-30 mile, the Shebandowan “Cabin Fever” Race, the Eton Rugby Festival Race, and the Mush for a Cure FUNdraising fun run thus far.
